

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS NEWS

The Columbus Thief Found in Canada and Forced to Give Up His Plunder.

Murderous Assault Growing Out of the Recent Election—Work of Two County Institutions—Horrible Hunting Accident.

INDIANA.

The President of the Columbus Bank Overhauls the Thieving Teller in Canada.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 2.—Capt. W. J. Lucas, president of the Columbus National Bank here, left for Canada Friday night, in pursuit of Will Schriber, the absconding teller, for the purpose of securing the notes stolen. His departure was kept very quiet, and the press representatives here were requested to say nothing about the matter for fear Schriber might get wind of it before he had reached his destination and might seek himself. As the telegram to Cashier L. K. Ong, from Schriber on Thursday stated that he would be at the Queen's Hotel, Toronto, Canada, on Saturday, Captain Lucas went directly to that city, where he arrived late last night.

There is absolutely no truth in the statement that government bonds to the amount of $10,000, belonging to Mrs. Lucas, wife of the bank's president, had been stolen. The Journal correspondent called at the bank this afternoon and information was received from L. K. Ong, the cashier and a few stockholders who were present, to the effect that the books were straight in every particular and that all the parties who had bonds in the safe had called, and by a close examination had found them all intact. The amount in notes taken was considerable, but as they are not negotiable they are of no value to the thief. The stockholders of the bank are all very wealthy, and represent in the aggregate fully $1,500,000. There is not the remotest danger of the bank being closed, and the embarrassment, as the sum taken is comparatively insignificant.

The following telegram, which means that Will Schriber, the absconding teller, has been captured, was received here, to-night, by L. K. Ong, cashier of the bank. It is self-explanatory, and reads as follows:

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Dec. 2. Everything all right. I am in agreement to return to Windsor and get all the papers and part of the cash.

W. J. LUCAS.

County Teachers' Association.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENCASTLE, Dec. 1.—The fourth annual meeting of the Putnam County Teachers' Association closed its session here this afternoon. It was by far the most excellent and successful meeting ever held in the county and the results are highly gratifying to those participating. Quite a number of addresses were delivered, and among the most prominent were Professor Study, of Richmond, on "The Education of the American Citizen," Professor T. J. Bassett, of De Pauw University, on "Moral Education," Professor Ogden, of the city schools, also gave a very interesting talk. The programme was quite large, and the entire session was held on two days. Professor R. G. Boone, of the State University, gave quite an interesting address this afternoon. The meeting concluded with the election of officers for the ensuing year, as follows: President, Samuel A. Harris; vice-president, Miss Lena Bodemer; secretary, Miss Edna Ridgway; treasurer, County Superintendent Smedley. Miss T. J. of the Oswego (N. Y.) Training School, gave a splendid exercise. The surplus now in the treasury will be devoted to a library association for the benefit of teachers.

ROCKFORD, Dec. 1.—The Spencer County Teachers' Association met at the Presbyterian Church, at Rockport, Friday, Nov. 30. At the morning session the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, and by Mr. John Beeler, on "Teachers' Rights and Wrongs." The latter paper resolved itself into an attack on county superintendents, and created considerable excitement. Saturday morning papers were read by Miss Dora Hoge on "The Duties of the Teacher," by Professor Kennedy on "The Burden of Civilization," and by Dr. Burdette, of Rockport, on "Woman," an attack on women's rights. The ladies of the association replied to this by a practical demonstration of the rights, and elected for the ensuing year the first woman president of the association, Mrs. Marguerite DeBruier, vice-president, Mr. F. Osborn; secretary and treasurer, Mr. J. W. Smith. Resolutions having been passed thanking the people of Rockport for their kindness, the association adjourned to meet in Rockport the Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving, 1889.

Murderous Assault by Rugs.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DANVILLE, Dec. 2.—Last night, at about 8 o'clock, George W. Long was assaulted by some one whom he could not recognize in the dark, and knocked down with a heavy stone. Long says he passed three men on the walk north of the court-house yard, and after he had gone a few steps he heard some one running up behind him, and turned just in time to receive the missile straight in the forehead. The three men ran away, and disappeared among the trees in the court-house yard. Long fell on his back, and was unconscious for some time. He was picked up by two men, and taken to the Whites' office. The blow proved to be a serious one, the blood being forced into one place and laid bare in two others. The stone was picked up afterwards, and was found to weigh four or five pounds. The assault was undoubtedly a malicious one, and was the result of a difficulty that occurred during the latter part of the campaign. George Long is a Republican and rendered his party some service on election day. The attack was instigated by Long's condition is serious, though he will likely recover.

Horribly Torn by a Charge of Shot.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

DANVILLE, Dec. 1.—A young man named Geo. Duckworth, of North Salem, was out hunting alone, last Friday evening, and accidentally shot himself in the side. He was standing on a log with his double-barreled shotgun in his hand, both barrels being full-cocked. He slipped, and involuntarily put the butt of the gun to the ground to support himself. One shot entering his left side and tearing its way out at his back, he then took poison, and at last accounts was in a critical condition. He fell in a shallow pool of water, and was heard calling for help by two men who were at work in the same woods. He was conveyed to his home and several physicians called in. They found that the left lung was exposed, and that the three arteries were severed. His condition is critical. He is a son of James Duckworth.

A Montgomery Man's Marital Troubles.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Dec. 1.—Moses Stewart and Mrs. Nannie Linn, of Montgomery county, were married about a year ago. They lived unhappily together, and last week he attempted to kill his wife. She ran to a neighbor's, followed by her husband with a revolver. He was disarmed, and went to Crawfordsville, where he was gone some time. She returned home, got her things and went to Ladoga where her mother resided. He followed her there, and she would not return home with him. He then took poison, and at last accounts was likely to die. Jealousy was the cause.

Republicans Taken Back Into the Service.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WABASH, Dec. 2.—The Republican railway postal clerks on the Wabash, who were discharged before the election for offensive partisanship, are being quietly taken back. The Democrats who took their places proved incompetent, and the service was demoralized in consequence. This evening T. M. Milliron, of this city, who was discharged on the day before the election, again entered the service on request of the superintendent of the railway mail service for this division, and was given the run between Lafayette and Peoria.

Farmers Crazy by Religion.

Wabash Special.

Two brothers named Dilla, living at Markle, ten days ago were carried away by religious excitement generated by a revival held in their town and they resolved upon a fast in expiation of their sins. They devoted the entire time to religious exercises. This, in connection with the fasting, unbalanced their minds, and last night they both became so insane that it became necessary to remove them to the county jail at Huntington, but not before the elder Dilla had to be knocked in the head to make him tractable. The Dilla are prosperous farmers.

Safe Blown Open by Burglars.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TERRE HAUTE, Dec. 2.—Burglars blew open a large safe in George Dodson's second-hand store, early this morning. A policeman was at the corner of the building at the time, and as he went out at another door. Both doors of the safe were blown off and the inside money apartment shattered, the money being scattered over the floor. It is thought there were two of the burglars.

Arrested on a Charge of Stealing.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LOANSBORO, Dec. 2.—L. F. Frankel, a well-dressed Hebrew, has been arrested on the charge of stealing $21 from a house of ill-fame. The authorities at Peoria, Ill., have wired the officers here to hold him until the arrival of the Peoria officers, where he is wanted for the larceny of a diamond ring.

Minor Notes.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—Minnie L. Wright, has filed a $5,000 breach-of-promise suit against Charles Froster, a wealthy young society man of Minneapolis.

MOORE, which has been epidemic in the southern part of Shelby county, has spread to Shelbyville, where a number of cases were reported on Saturday.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wamburn, of Shelbyville, was found dead in bed at an early hour Saturday morning. The cause of death is not known.

The last lodge in Boone county of the once prosperous order of the Patrons of Industry, has disbanded. At one time the order was a co-operative store in Lebanon, which furnished for a while, but finally went into bankruptcy.

Last Friday Charles Sheehan, an inmate of the St. Joe Hospital, at Fort Wayne, Ind., was taken from another inmate. He was arrested, and within thirty hours was in the Michigan City penitentiary, serving an eighteen-month sentence.

Baptist Church at Smithland, Shelby county, in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the meeting of the Montgomery county fair directors, at Crawfordville, on Saturday, it was ascertained that although the receipts were more than enough to pay the expenses of the fair, owing to the improvements made during last summer the society was $1,800 in debt.

The annual fair of the St. Bernard Catholic church, at Rockport, opened, Wednesday, Dec. 28, with a play, "Aunt Dinah's Pledge." It was followed Thursday and Friday nights by a concert, which drew large audiences each night. It was closed Saturday night with a play, "The Little Folk of the Church." Each night a supper was served in the hall, and from this and the fancy work of all kinds, which was sold at auction, the church realized a large sum.

ILLINOIS.

Gleanings from Exchanges and Collings from Correspondents.

At a depth of 200 feet a nine-foot vein of coal was struck at Ridge Prairie last Friday.

John Fletcher, of Collinsville, while hunting, on Saturday, dropped his gun, causing both loads to go off. He has but one arm now.

John Fletcher was instantly killed by a fall of earth at Alton, on Saturday. He leaves a wife and two children at his home in Troy.

D. E. Baldwin, a switchman, was caught between the bumpers while coupling cars in the Illinois Central yard, at Chicago, on Saturday.

Mrs. J. M. Greenwell, of Grand Tower, shot her husband twice, on Saturday, in a quarrel. The wounds are fatal and she is now in jail at Murfreesboro.

Jessie Smith, an iron-molder, who left Lithfield, on Dec. 1, was found dead in a box car, with his throat cut, at Paxton, on Saturday. The murder is surrounded with mystery.

THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

The First Draft of the Instrument Which Set the Slave Free.

The Nicolay and Hay "Life of Lincoln" in the December Century gives an account of the original draft of the Emancipation Proclamation, the original draft being printed for the first time. A Cabinet meeting was held on July 22, 1862, concerning this matter. The following is the substance of the meeting, as given by the "Life of Lincoln": "The impression left upon my mind by the whole discussion was, that while the President was in advance of the country, and was ready to arm and organize the negroes like other citizens, he was not willing that commanders should, in an advance, arm, for purely defensive purposes, slaves coming within their lines. But on the kindred policy of emancipation the President had reached a decision which appears to have been the result of his own reflection. He read them the following draft of a proclamation warning the rebels of the pains and penalties of disobedience, and while reviewing his tender of compensation to the States, which would adopt gradual abolition, adding a summary military order, as commander-in-chief, ordering the slaves of all States which might be in rebellion to be freed. The text of this first draft of the Emancipation Proclamation is here printed for the first time. In pursuance of the sixth section of the act of Congress, entitled, 'An act to suppress insurrection and to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate property of rebels, and for other purposes,' approved July 17, 1862, and the joint resolution, explanatory thereof are herewith published. I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that all persons within the rebellion of said sixth section to cease participating in, aiding, countenancing, or abetting the existing rebellion, or any relation against the government of the United States, and their proper allegiance to the United States, on pain of the forfeitures and seizures, as within and said sixth section provided.

A Parole in Tobacco.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 1.—The deplorable and demoralized state of the tobacco market here, and the fact that the market is now one-half of the world's consumption of common grades. The climax of the market was reached last night, when the market was closed at 10 cents, which were bringing $4 or $5 at this time one year ago. This disastrous state of affairs can be understood when it is known that the crop of this year was one of the worst in the history of the crop, and that there are now in the warehouses of this city, Owensboro, Henderson and Hopkinsville, Ky., not less than forty-five hundred bales of tobacco, which are being held for an advance right in the face of the new crop, which will be placed upon the market within three weeks. Another factor in the situation is the fact that the crop of 1888 was one of the worst in the history of the crop, and that there are now in the warehouses of this city, Owensboro, Henderson and Hopkinsville, Ky., not less than forty-five hundred bales of tobacco, which are being held for an advance right in the face of the new crop, which will be placed upon the market within three weeks. Another factor in the situation is the fact that the crop of 1888 was one of the worst in the history of the crop, and that there are now in the warehouses of this city, Owensboro, Henderson and Hopkinsville, Ky., not less than forty-five hundred bales of tobacco, which are being held for an advance right in the face of the new crop, which will be placed upon the market within three weeks.

The Columbus Bank Robbery.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Dec. 1.—There are no developments of a striking nature in the recent robbery of the First National Bank here by its teller, Will Schriber, who is now in Canada. An effort will be made to secure his extradition upon the ground that his offense is grand larceny. The stockholders held a meeting last night, but it is not known what its purpose was. The bank is open for business, and the robbery has not been financially embarrassing, although a big run was made upon it by depositors. The accounts of the teller are being examined, but nothing is known as to the whereabouts of the stolen money. It is very true, however, and this statement is said to have been given credence by one of the stockholders, that the teller had been carrying the note-register for the purpose of covering up his thefts in that par-

NEWS IN SUNDAY'S JOURNAL.

Resume of the Principal Home and Foreign Events Recorded in the Issue of Dec. 2.

John L. Sullivan says that he is ready and willing to fight either a Jew or a nigger.

Cal Silsby, a notorious bald-knocker, has been arrested and is in jail at Springfield, Mo.

A negro named Tom Brown was arrested at Lexington, Ky., for outraging a ten-year-old girl.

James O. Salisbury killed himself in a boarding-house at New York. He was despondent.

The bondsmen of County Treasurer Winchell, at Redfield, Dak., have found his defalcation to be about $16,000.

It is said that Pennsylvania expects to have a valuable state coal and coal in Carbon county, Minnesota.

Jake Kilrain has challenged John L. Sullivan to fight with bare knuckles to a finish, London, under $5,000 stake.

Jesse Atchinson was sentenced at Lexington, Ky., to fourteen years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for murder.

Boleto M. Hage, head clerk in the revenue office at Harrisburg, Pa., is said to be a defaulter to the amount of $5,000.

In the six-day walking match at New York, Littlewood broke all previous records, scoring 623 miles and winning the contest.

Dudley M. Oliver committed suicide at Evansville, Ind., by shooting himself. Financial trouble is believed to be the cause.

Hugh M. Dugan, a collector at Findlay, O., has been arrested for embezzlement. He had money collected by him on Cleveland's election.

John McCormick was arrested at Nebraska City, Neb., for repeatedly outraging his ten-year-old step-daughter. He is threatened with lynching.

Joseph Gwadiuk, a prominent business man from Chicago, was arrested at St. Paul, Minn., on the charge of being a defaulter to the sum of $5,000.

James Sullivan and Joseph Putz, working on the farm of E. Remick, near Greenview, Minn., were arrested in Big Stone Lake by going through the ice.

The body of George Donovan, the murderer of John King, at New Haven, Conn., was found in the reservoir. The motive for the murder is yet to be ascertained.

Services over the remains of the late wife of General Sherman were held in St. Louis on Saturday. The interment will take place in Calvary cemetery, in that city.

Wm. Howard, said to be one of the "Blinky" Morans, was arrested at St. Louis on the charge of burglary tools in his possession.

Lucretia McElroy, of Jasper, Tenn., brought suit for damages in the sum of $10,000 against a wealthy farmer named Graham, for seduction and breach of promise. A jury gave her $25,000.

After an incarceration of twenty-five years in a public prison, George W. H. Smith, who disappeared from Marietta, Ga., has been restored to his children, all of whom mourned him as dead.

The property of the Montezuma Valley Water-supply company was sold under foreclosure at Cortez, Col., to a syndicate of Eastern capitalists, for $250,000. The company will be reorganized under a new charter.

As the result of a hasty marriage, George W. Smith, of St. Paul, Minn., was arrested on the charge of opening a letter written by his wife, who was a Miss Mary Bracombe, of Kansas City, to a Kansas City traveling agent, and married, in which a plot between the two to further get possession of his property was disclosed.

The Sultan of Zanzibar has assented to the terms of the London conference, and Lord Mayor of Dublin by the aldermen without a dissenting voice. Rents near Thurles were reduced by the Land commission nearly fifty per cent.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

Reception to Governor-Elect Hovey.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The reception tendered by the Indiana Republicans in this city to General Hovey, their Governor-elect, was a splendid one. The parade of the Elkhart House, where the oration was given, were beautifully decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. There were orchestra music, and many of the guests were in the city. The parade was a grand one, and the oration was a splendid one. The parade was a grand one, and the oration was a splendid one.

Over eight hundred men and women congregated at the newly-elected chief executive of Indiana, and he received the honors of a triumphal procession. The parade was a grand one, and the oration was a splendid one.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read, and the report was a glowing one. The association is now in the midst of a great revival, which started only a few nights ago. On Friday night fifteen persons united, making, in all, fifty this time. The meetings are in charge of the Rev. J. W. Lawrence.

At the annual meeting of the National Association of Manufacturers, at St. Louis, Mo., on Saturday, the annual report of the association was read